Welcome to the 75th Annual Cass County Fair!

Reaching 75 years is a huge milestone and could not be done without our exhibitors, their families, and the volunteers throughout the years!

Each year Cass County youth bring their very best to exhibit at the fair and this year will be no different. Animal exhibits range from dogs to horses and pigs to rabbits. The Home Economics building houses a variety of exhibits such as baking, woodworking, vegetables and more made solely by Cass County youth. Stop by and see their accomplishments!

The Cass County Fair Board would like to thank each and every individual and business that volunteers or donates to the fair in order to ensure that the Cass County Fair continues each year. Come and enjoy our family-friendly entertainment, fair food, and community atmosphere!
